OREGON ESTATE
OF STRONG ALL
GOES TO WIDOW

Home In Winnetka Also Becomes Property
Of Mrs. Strong

Chicago, May 14—(UP)—The will of Walter A. Strong, publisher of the Chicago Daily News, who died last Sunday, was filed today, outlining a program of preserving "the Daily News" or its successor as a semi-public institution with substantially the character it may have at my death.

Although the will, the executor said the value of Strong's estate would "not exceed $2,500,000. Provisions were made for the sale of the publisher's controlling interest in the paper to employees or others who in the opinion of the three executors, would preserve its established character.

The will, which was executed in April, 1926, a few months after Strong obtained control of the Daily News, left one-third of the estate to the widow and of the remainder created a trust estate for her benefit. The executors are Mrs. Strong and Laird Bell and Holman D. Pettibone, close friends of Strong.

The executors are free to retain indefinitely, as part of the estate, controlling interest in the Daily News.

The will, however, suggests that for a period of three months the stock be held available for purchase by any employee or group of employees. If the stock has not been sold in that time it is to be held another month, or four months after the testator's death, for purchase by any stockholder or group of stockholders.

Should no sale have been negotiated in that time a general offer of the stock would be in accord with the will.

Character Above Price

The executors, however, are expressly relieved of obligation to accept the highest bid or any bid, Strong placing character of purchaser above price. He suggested a minimum price of $2,000,000 for his interest in the property, total assets of which at the end of last year were reported as $29,400,000.

In certain paragraphs of his will Strong expressed his feelings of obligation to the public and to his associates:

"I consider that my ownership or control through stock of the Chicago Daily News involves obligations on the part of myself and my heirs to my associates in the enterprise and to the public. I expressly direct that the powers herein given to my executors to sell the stock which I may own in the Chicago Daily News, Inc., or in any successor publishing corporation publishing the Chicago Daily News or a successor paper, are to exercise by executors in their discretion and with the object of preserving the Chicago Daily News or its successor as a semi-public institution, with substantially the character it may have at my death."

Strong's home in Winnetka, and his country place on the Rock River are not part of the estate. They were held jointly by husband and wife and pass automatically into the sole ownership of Mrs. Strong.

St. Louis Railway
Workers To Strike

St. Louis, May 14—(AP)—Union employees of the St. Louis Public Service Company, which operates the street car system here, will strike at midnight next Tuesday unless the wage differences between the union and the company are settled satisfactorily in the meantime.

The strike was authorized in a vote completed late last night. Only 34 employees voted "no," while 3183 voted "yes."

The action followed the company's announcement recently of a conditional wage reductions of 10 per cent, the exact amount contingent upon the company's ability to earn its interest charges.

SCIENTIST TOLD
OF BEING BURIED
BY ARCTIC SNOWS

Was Imprisoned In Igloo
In Greenland For Two Months

(Copyright, 1931, by Associated Press)
Angmagssalik, Greenland, May 14—(AP)—A story of being buried two months beneath ice and snow in an igloo was told here today by Augustine Courtauld. The British scientist, who was rescued last week by fellow members of the British Arctic Air Route Expedition, had only a chimney way to provide air in his place of refuge on the Greenland ice cap.

Courtauld, whom Captain Albin Ahrenberg, Swedish aviator, brought here with H. G. Watkins, chief of the rescue party, from their inland base, was unshaven and unrecognizable beneath a long growth of beard, and appeared somewhat the worse for a long enforced diet of seal meat.

Watkins said that his rescue party had waited for many weeks over the ice crags toward the locality where at the inter's beginning they had left Courtauld to observe weather conditions. They frequently lost the trail and near the place they reckoned Courtauld to have been, the skies clouded up and they could not ascertain their position.

In searching a wide ice field they found an enormous drift, covered with a thick layer of ice when they at once concluded must have been Courtauld's igloo. At the top of the snowdrift, which rose above the surrounding acres of frozen snow, the weary party found a small opening.

Imprisoned Two Months

They shouted down into it, hoping their comrade was safe below, and heard in reply an unexcited: "Hello! All right," which relieved their doubts and assured them that the imprisoned man was very much alive. They went to work with spades and within fifteen minutes had dug down and reached Courtauld.

Courtauld said that two months before a blizzard had raged for several days, completely covering the igloo. It was out of the question to dig himself out, first because the snow would have fallen in on him and then because he had left his only shovel outside before the blizzard began. Part of his supplies also were outside.

There was no opening to the outside world from the murky igloo except by the chimney, which he had to keep open to provide him with a permanent light and depended for an occasional glimmer from a little gasoline lamp which he used to melt snow to obtain drinking water.

He said that he spent most of his dreary time in his sleeping bag, dozing and thinking, telling himself to keep his courage up.

Four Busts Placed
In Hall Of Fame

New York, May 14—(AP)—Busts of four illustrious Americans were unveiled in the Hall of Fame today and a distinguished company celebrated their memory in prose and poetry.

The statues, which were placed with 65 others previously unveiled in the colonnade on the campus of New York University, are likenesses of the following:

James Monroe, fifth President, sponsor of the Monroe Doctrine.

Matthew Fontaine Maury, oceanographer, called the "Pathfinder of the Seas." His researches in mapping ocean currents and winds saved millions of dollars to shippers by reducing sailing time.

James Abbott McNeill Whistler, painter, etcher, water-colorist and satirist.

Walt Whitman, called the "poet of Democracy."

President Hoover sent a letter praising the enduring quality of the work of the four men. He said the Monroe Doctrine "has formed the firm foundation upon which had steadily grown an ever-increasing mutual respect and good will between our own country and those advancing nations to the south of us."

BRIAND RESIGNS
PORTFOLIO; BUT
POSTPONES LEAVE

Disappointed At His Defeat For President
French Republic

By RALPH HEINZEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Paris, May 14—(UP)—The Council of Ministers today succeeded in dissuading Foreign Minister Aristide Briand from resigning immediately and Briand consented to proceed to Geneva tonight, accompanied by Francois Poncet, Under-Secretary of State.

While it was understood to be Briand's intention to resign as soon as possible, the ministers intend to exert further pressure upon him in an effort to induce him to remain, they are not, however, particularly hopeful of success.

Briand declared that he would remain at Geneva for a short time and then resign. He expressed pleasure that he was to participate in the European commission at Geneva, but he appeared to be tired and dispirited after yesterday's unexpected defeat in the presidential election.

A communique subsequently issued by the Council of Ministers disclosed that Briand had presented his resignation but that it was rejected. The communique said he would go to Geneva to defend France's interests in the "anschluss" dispute, conforming to vote of the Chamber of Deputies.

Visibly Disappointed

The "apostle of peace" was defeated for President by Senator Paul Doumer in the exciting balloting by Parliament, sitting at a national assembly at Versailles yesterday. He withdrew on the first ballot, but was visibly disappointed.

The selection of President-elect Doumer did not indicate disagreement in Parliament with Briand's pacific foreign policy. On the contrary, it was emphasized that his unexpected defeat was due essentially to a party quarrel in which the Right-center factions bested Briand's supporters on the left benches.

Briand's defeat technically was ascribed to the support of the Socialists. They brought a block of 100 votes to his standard, but this action estranged several hundred Centrists.

The President-elect, Senator Doumer, while insisting that he is a left wing man, in fact is a mild conservative. He is regarded as an able statesman, and is known as a firm admirer of Premier Laval and Andre Tardieu, minister of Agriculture and former Premier. These men may be expected to play vital roles during the Doumer administration.

Age Causes Concern

The fact that Doumer is 74 years old—the oldest man ever to be elected president in France—caused some concern, many believing that it appeared improbable that the elderly and tired president of the Senate could live through his seven year term as 13th president of the republic.

The public generally regarded the election as a happy one, however, particularly in view of Doumer's war sacrifices. He lost three sons in the World War. The women were satisfied for there is a Mrs. Doumer to be "first lady" of the land, whereas Briand, like retiring President Gaston Doumergue, is a bachelor.

President-elect Doumer drove in triumph from Versailles, outside Paris, to the Elysee last evening as dusk fell. He drove into the Capital and along the boulevards under the Arc de Triomphe, his procession cheered by thousands who lined the streets, ablaze with flood lights.

Lost Four Sons In War

Paris, May 14—(UP)—Paul Doumer, who strongly resembles Charles Evans Hughes except in stature, has held for 43 years one job or another in the government service. His most successful service has been as president of the Senate.

STATE ST. SCENE OF MARDI GRAS
WEDNESDAY EVE

Chicago Gave Itself
Up To Merry-Making
Last Night

Chicago, May 14—(AP)—State St., one of the world's busiest thoroughfares, capitulated last night to half a million merry makers.

Seemingly, all Chicago converged on the famous street, in celebration of the All-Chicago trade jubilee. Men, women and children packed the street from the Chicago river to Van Buren street, a distance of ten blocks, giving the police what they described as their "biggest assignment."

An army of more than 2,500 policemen was on the job to preserve order as Chicago held Mardi Gras, but the crowd was orderly for the most part.

Several score of persons were overcome so great was the press of the crowd. They were given first aid at stations set up along the street. One policeman carried away so many fainting women that he himself was overcome.

One man died of heart disease. He was Dennis Sullivan, a barber, caught in the crush at State and Madison streets.

While huge search lights swept the skies and ticker tape showered down, the carnival held sway for three hours along the street, which was gaily festooned and converted into a six ring circus. A half dozen orchestras on as many platforms situated in the center of street intersections pepped the crowd up, while radio stars, vaudeville stars and other professional entertainers added to the festivities.

Annual Banquet Alpha Phi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority

The Alpha Phi Chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority held its annual banquet Tuesday evening at the Hotel Dixon, at which time officers were elected for the ensuing year and a number of new members were initiated. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock to eighteen members and guests, who were seated at a table arranged in the form of an "A." A centerpiece of lilacs and tulips decorated the table and the sorority colors of blue and gold were in evidence, in the programs, and yellow tapers, in blue holders.
The meeting was called to order by Miss Lola C. Brandon of Chicago. Miss Esther Barton, educational director of the group, gave the welcome address to the members and guests. The following officers were elected and installed by Miss Brandon who also gave the purpose of the sorority: Marie LeSage, President. Bernardin Chase, Vice Pres. Frances White, Recording Sec'y. Marie Jacobs, Corresponding Sec'y. Marjorie Ahrens, Treasurer. Frances Patrick, Publicity Chairman.
Katherine Schaefer, Chairman, Entertainment Committee.
Miss Frances Callahan favored the guests with two musical numbers, which were much enjoyed, "I Shall Not Have Lived in Vain" and "Perfect Day." She was accompanied by Miss Edith Heinle.
The next meeting will be held May 26, at 7:30 P. M. in the assembly room of the Illinois Northern Utilities Co., at which time the Educational program will be continued.
Farewell Reception for Rev., Mrs. B. H. Cleaver At Christian Church
Crowded parlors in the Christian Church last night proved the esteem and love, not of his own church only, but the whole community held for this beloved pastor who is closing a nine year ministry in Dixon. The room was beautifully decorated with lovely spring flowers and the ladies of the reception committee, Mesdames Reagan, Bridges, Emmert and Mr. L. W. Emmert received the visitors.
The various sections of the city life were well represented, almost all the ministers of Dixon being present with their wives. The reception began at 8 o'clock and 10:00 came and the people were reluctant to leave.
An eight piece orchestra opened the program by playing "Stars and Stripes Forever," "Sempre Fidelis," by Sousa.
Miss Lorraine Missman gave a beautiful selection on the Belis entitled "The Rose Intermezzo" (Ascher) and in encore rendered a waltz from "Faust." Elizabeth Ford accompanied her on the piano.
Miss Rilla Webster recited a beautiful legendary poem entitled "Patchwork," also a child dialect poem "The Feller That His Mother Thinks He Is" in her usual charming manner. The orchestra selections following were: "The Fair Maid of Peobh," and "Thinking." Their rendering of these beautiful selections was much appreciated.
The ladies quartette, consisting of Miss Floto, Mesdames Emmert, Derr, and Bridges with Mrs. Nate Morrill presiding at the piano delighted the audience with "A Song of the Seasons" (Hawley).
The Rev. Walter W. Marshall spoke on behalf of the Dixon Ministerial Association words of appreciation in which he said that the whole community regretted the going of Rev. Cleaver from our midst. He is a man who has left an impression, not only upon his own church, but on the whole city. Eternity alone would reveal what the outcome of his work was but we all know that we can say now as the Master will say some day, "Well done. Good and faithful servant." He carries with him to his new sphere of labor, the thanks of the people of the city of Dixon. We wish him "God speed." This speech was followed by the presentation by Miss Pauline Flamingham on behalf of the Christian Endeavor, a beautiful C. E. prophecy album in which the young people wrote their own prophecies concerning their future.
The Upstreamers' Class were represented by Mrs. W. Wel's, who presented Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Cleaver with a silver cream and sugar service in appreciation of their service.
F. M. Johnson presented an envelope with a sum of money, on behalf of the church, the Boy Scouts and other friends in a few, well chosen words while he emphasized the value of the Pastor's work in their midst.
The orchestra again played: "Marja, a Polish Dance" "The Cherry Blossom Intermezzo".
Rev. B. H. Cleaver replied to the presentations on behalf of Mrs. Cleaver and himself. He drew attention to the fact that only one minister was present who had been present when he came to the church nine years ago. He referred to the Rev. Lloyd W. Walter who greeted him with words of welcome at his coming to Dixon. He has spent a quarter of the whole period of the history of the church in their midst. In that time he has welcomed 341 new members into the church and there has passed almost 50 per cent of that number from Dixon by death or removal. He leaves Dixon with great regret for it is the most beautiful city in which he had ever lived. He has spent many happy days in our midst, days that he and Mrs. Cleaver would never forget. He is now proceeding to a new field of labor but happy memories would always cling around the city he was leaving.
The orchestra played in conclusion: "The Cabin in the Hills," "Springtime in the Rockies".
Refreshments were served in the Christian Church Ladies' delicious style and Mesdames Allen and Orligsen presided at the tea tables. The silver tea services used were heirlooms from England and were kindly lent by Mesdames Ayres and Spiller.
Thus a very splendid farewell send off was given to our departing friends—the Cleavers.

Concert Monday Evening Excellent
The concert given at the Methodist church Monday evening by the Methodist choir and the Dixon Symphony orchestra was a delightful affair and deserved a much better attendance than it received. However, the audience was a most appreciative one. There was no admission at the door, but a silver offering was taken which was generously contributed to.

Belated Honor Is Given Sir Thomas
London, May 14—(UP)—Sir Thomas Lipton was elected a member of the Royal Yacht Squadron today.
The honor of belonging to the foremost and most exclusive yacht club in Great Britain has come to Britain's famous yachtman late in life.
Despite his long and valiant fight to lift the America's Cup from the United States with Shamrock after Shamrock, Sir Thomas consistently has been ignored by the committee of the Cowes club. Some time ago, however, the news leaked out that he was to be elected.
The fact that Sir Thomas, who made his fortune selling tea and groceries, was a tradesman, always has been regarded as the reason for his failure to make the Royal Yacht Squadron. He belongs to most other yacht clubs of importance, however.
As a friend of King Edward VII, there is a story that the King once tried to have Lipton made a member, but that the club refused to stand for it. The story never has been substantiated.

FIXING RESPONSIBILITY.

Gerard Swope undoubtedly struck a popular note in telling the International Chamber of Commerce that the "dole" is harmful both for the man who gets it and for the community that pays it. However, he followed it by pointing to a fact that is often ignored—that industry itself must find some fair and workable alternative if the dole is to be avoided.

This fact, self-evident as it is, gets overlooked with surprising frequency. The dole has been damned from one side of the world to the other in the last decade; the alternative to the dole has seldom been given much attention.

The evils of the dole are fairly obvious. England is painfully familiar with them. Hundreds of thousands of young Englishmen are growing into manhood without ever having held jobs in their lives. They have not had to work. The government has supported them. Some of them prefer to remain unemployed. Why work, when a kind government will pay you a wage anyway?

It is no wonder that industrialists have looked on the dole as a radical device only one degree better than outright Communism. But, as Mr. Swope points out, there is another side to it.

England is paying the dole because she has to. Unemployment has been widespread and chronic ever since the war. England has missed actual revolution, in the years since 1918, by an incredibly narrow margin—the margin of the despised dole. With all of its evils, the dole has kept the nation from collapse.

In this country, today, we are having our troubles with unemployment. It has been widespread enough and it has lasted long enough to make many people look wistfully at the British dole system. Mr. Swope, in condemning the dole system, very properly goes on to say that if industry wants to avoid the dole it must, by its own forethought and planning, avoid unemployment.

That, after all, is what it all comes down to. The ordinary man is entitled to a job. If his country's economic system is so poorly constructed and so badly synchronized that he cannot get one, he is entitled to some sort of pittance that will keep him and his family from starvation.

Industry, naturally, abhors the dole. Too often it forgets the responsibility to which Mr. Swope has pointed—that industrial leadership must make the dole unnecessary. Mr. Swope has done the country a great service in making that responsibility clear.

THE FARMER'S PROBLEM.

The emergence of Russia as the world's leading producer of wheat adds just one more troublesome item to the list of things that the American farmer has to worry about these days.

It is not generally realized that a good share of the American wheat belt's trouble is due to the fact that Russian wheat was out of the world market during and just before the war. This led to a great expansion of wheat acreage both in the United States and in Argentina—and paved the way for the present overproduction.

Russia's soil is ideally adapted to the production of wheat. The 1930 crop, aggregating over one billion bushels, proves it. And the point is that Russia was contributing no wheat at all to the world market a decade ago. This enormous crop, consequently, means a tremendous surplus, for which the American producer must suffer. Is it any wonder that wheat growers are getting gray hairs?

PUBLIC RELIEF WORK.

One hundred representative American cities spent more than $40,000,000 during 1930 on relief work among needy families, according to figures just issued by the U. S. Children's Bureau.

Private contributions, the Bureau's report says, increased measurably to meet the emergency, but the greater share of the increased burden of relief work was borne and is now being borne by agencies maintained by public taxes. In general, it is stated, public departments spent nearly 150 per cent more on this sort of work than they did in the preceding year.

Whatever may be the case regarding national relief work, it is fairly clear that local work has to get very liberal help from the public treasury.

Edward of Wales got $50,000,000 worth of business for Britain during his South American trip. A price of a salesman!

The surgeon who operated on the King of Siam's eyes hopes, of course, His Majesty will see his way to reward him handsomely.

The silk worm, after all, is the poor hubby who is obliged to keep his wife in hose.

Skunk skins have advanced 10 per cent, according to fur quotations. So long as it isn't 10 per cent.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tines worked for about an hour and then there came a sudden shower. The Travel Man said, "Come let's go and find a shelter spot." The others ran, but Clowdy poked. Said he, "I don't care if I'm soaked. At times the rain feels mighty good, especially when it is hot."

But, when he reached the shelter place, a frown soon spread across his face because the kindly Travel Man said, "See what you have done. Of course, I do not mean to scold, but I'm afraid that you will catch cold. The shower is clearing up now. You must dry out in the sun."

So, when the friendly sun broke through, he did what he was told to do. The others played some card games while he sat alone outside. In about an hour his clothes were dry and then the bunch heard Clowdy cry, "Come on, let's travel on our way. I'm dry now to the hide."

They walked to town and had some lunch. The Travel Man then the bunch. "We are going to take a boat ride. After that we will take a train. We are bound for Peking right today. The boat will take us but part way. The choo-choo will complete the trip, which will not be in vain."

"Because, in Peking, I am sure we will see some sights as thrilling as can be." They ate their lunch and then upon the Grand Canal a sail. When this long ride was finally through they docked. A train pulled into view and when it reached old Peking Clowdy let out quite a wail.

"Oh, my! Oh, my!" he loudly cried. "I am fairly dizzy from that ride." "Cheer up," replied the Travel Man. "It does no good to sigh. We will walk around the town and then I am sure you will feel all right again." Then Clowdy said, "Oh, look! I see an arch that towers high."

(The Tynmites find out a lot about Peking in the next story.)

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

ARMY INCREASE
On May 14, 1917, President Wilson approved the completed plans for the immediate expansion of the regular army to full war strength or 293,000 men, through the formation as rapidly as possible of all the units authorized by the National Defense Act of June 3, 1916.

The orders issued by the president called for the formation of 27 regiments of infantry, 12 of artillery and six of cavalry. When these have been obtained the army would have 64 regiments of infantry, 21 of artillery and 25 of cavalry—a total of 110 regiments.

The new regiments were an addition to the National Guard and to the draft army of 500,000. Raised to war strength the guard would contain 329,954 men. Secretary of War Newton D. Baker announced plans on this day for the raising of the 45 new regiments.

Daily Health Talk

SALT PLAYS IMPORTANT PART
Pure sodium, which is one of the two elements in sodium chloride or common salt, is seldom found except in chemical laboratories. It is very active substance and extremely dangerous to handle. Many combinations of sodium with other substances are much used in diet and in industry. Baking soda is sodium bicarbonate.

It is estimated that the average man takes in his diet about half an ounce of sodium chloride every day. There are, however, other combinations of sodium secured in foods. No one knows exactly the minimum or maximum of sodium chloride that any one person ought to have, but fortunately the human body is equipped with factors of safety so that it can get rid of excesses of various substances. The average human body contains at all times about three ounces of sodium chloride.

Many vegetables contain another salt with an element similar to sodium, namely, potassium. A person who subsists on a vegetable diet craves salt because vegetables contain less sodium than does meat. The moment the salt in the human body falls below the amount necessary, a craving is set up.

Salt is also important for supplying the chlorine element since hydrochloric acid is secreted by the stomach regularly as an aid to digestion. Pepsin works as a digestive substance only in the presence of hydrochloric acid. However, hydrochloric acid should not be taken by the average person in that form except on the advice of a physician.

Various diets have been developed free from large amounts of sodium chloride, because it is believed by some that there is a definite relationship between salt in the diet and the occurrence of various conditions affecting the blood pressure and the kidneys. Unless a person is greatly concerned by the presence of either of these diseases, he need give little attention to his salt intake. However, in the presence of unusual craving for salt, or, in fact, in any disease condition, it is well to be guided in such matters by competent advice.

OUR TAXES

By LLOYD MOREY,
Comptroller,
University of Illinois

GENERAL PROPERTY TAX

The tax that comes closest home to the average citizen in Illinois and is paid by the largest number of citizens is the General Property Tax. It is based on an assessment of real and personal property made in every township of the State by local officers. The present basis of that assessment, theoretically, is full valuation; but actually, the present assessed valuation is about eight billion dollars while the estimated wealth of the State is 24 billions.

The Tax rate assessed in the different counties is an aggregate made up principally of levies from state, county, township, city (in urban communities) and school tax. The average rate in urban communities is about $4 on each $100 assessed valuation. For rural sections the average is somewhat less. This rate is applied to the assessed valuation, which is much less than the actual value of property assessed. The State tax makes up not over 10 per cent of the total; the county tax another 10 per cent; school taxes from one-third to one-half and municipal and other local government taxes the remainder.

That there are deficiencies in the present tax laws is admitted by all. In metropolitan communities the number of independent tax-levying and governing bodies adds to the difficulties. That the total property taxes paid are really a burden, however, is not shown by the facts, even though it may be true in individual cases. The total is less than one and one-half per cent of the total wealth of the state. For it the citizens of the State are getting protection for themselves and their properties, education for their families, care for their wards, highways and parks for their use and pleasure, and many other essential government services. What item of expense yields a greater return on the investment than this?

father, Robert Edwards of Ollie, Ia., told authorities today.

"She wanted to write like her cousin, Marvin Edwards," said the father. "She read a great deal, and copied passages that appealed to her."

Family Quarrel Over Leiter Estate Ends

Chicago, May 14 (UP)—The family quarrel over administration of the estate of Levi Z. Leiter, Chicago merchant prince, whose daughters married into the British nobility, has ended in a formal agreement among the heirs.

The peace pact was reported to Judge Denis E. Sullivan by attorneys representing the divided branches of the family, respectively headed by Joseph Leiter, a son, and his sister, Lady Marguerite Hyde, Countess of Suffolk and Berks.

Joseph Leiter will resign as trustee of the estate and yield his stewardship to W. Scott Bond, his representative. Lady Marguerite likewise will quit the board of trustees and name Darrow Fulton as her solicitor. This terminates eight years of litigation over Joseph Leiter's trusteeship.

RAMIFICATIONS OF NO. AMERICAN CO. BEING DISCLOSED

The Federal Trade Board
Learns Of Giant
Holding Co.

Washington, May 14—(UP)—The widespread interests of the North American Company, which controls approximately five per cent of the power output of the country and operates in a dozen states, were revealed when the Federal Trade Commission began hearings in its investigation of this giant utility holding company.

Disclosing the result of a year's investigation into the company Judson C. Dickerman, examiner for the commission, showed that it owns stock in 76 operating companies directly and through various subsidiaries in California, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia. In most cases, the North American holds controlling interest in the companies.

A hook-up between the North American and the New Empire Corporation, another large holding company, was shown by ownership of 27.8 per cent of North American stock by the New Empire Corporation. Harrison Williams, power magnate, formerly of Ohio and now of New York, was listed as owning all stock of the New Empire Corporation.

The North American Company, Dickerman testified, owns 100 per cent of the North American Edison Company which has 51 subsidiary companies; has nine other direct subsidiaries, holds a minority interest in eight other companies, and has a 55 per cent control in the Washington, D. C., Railway and Electric Company.

The New Empire Corporation has 100 per cent control of the following companies:

Federal Utilities: Electric Investment Company; Columbia Utilities; Onondaga Corporation; Rectory Utilities; Utilities Securities. It holds 54.5 per cent in the Central States Corporation.

Dickerman explained that the North American was different from other holding companies in that it charges no fees to subsidiaries except those customarily made for financing services by trust companies and an apportionment of the directors salaries and expenses of employees doing statistical and other work for the subsidiaries. The output of the North American subsidiaries according to a report submitted to the commission was 5,793,253,914 kilowatt hours in 1930, compared with 5,761,262,722 for 1929 and 5,218,185,968 for 1928.

Dickerman said the North American Company's activities embraced electric light and power, gas and central heating services, electric railway and bus transportation, real estate holdings, operation of coal mines and marketing of securities.

Gross earnings of the subsidiaries totaled $147,779,869 in 1929 with a balance for common stock dividends of $28,806,824 after providing for all expenses, taxes, interest and preferred dividends.

Three Ohio Colleges Affected By Disorders

Cleveland, O., May 14—(AP)—Three Ohio colleges were confronted today with disorders affecting their student bodies. In two of them, the disorders have been accompanied by violence.

At Heidelberg College, Tiffin, a small wooden athletic office was burned yesterday, but officials blamed unidentified "town hoodlums" for the alleged incendiarism. Only a few days ago stones were thrown through the office window of Heidelberg's president, Dr. Charles E. Miller as students protested the non-reappointment of a professor. Police took a hand in the situation at Marietta College, Marietta, after the Delta Upsilon fraternity house was stoned and many of its windows broken. Delta Upsilon, contrary to other fraternities, had supported Miss Sarah Leake, of Lowell, O., as candidate for president of the junior class. She was elected.

At Akron University, Akron, two coeds and a man student were under suspension while authorities of the university investigated an alleged attempt to stuff the ballot box in the election of a May queen.

HEAVY TRACK IN PROSPECT; DERBY LIST IS REDUCED

Field Is Reduced To 11 Candidates: Mate Is Favored To Win

BY JAMES M. KERR
By UNITED PRESS

Louisville, Ky., May 14 (UP)—Prospects of a slow track reduced the field for the Kentucky Derby to eleven candidates today.

Additional rain yesterday almost definitely eliminated Boys Howdy, H. C. Hatch's three-year-old, from the list of probable starters. Boys Howdy has been unable to go through a good workout because of the muddy condition of Churchill Downs and unless the track dries up considerably today, Hatch will withdraw his eligible.

Even if no more rain falls, it is doubtful if the racing strip will be completely dried out by Saturday. Should the track continue muddy, Equipoise probably will gain much support. Equipoise is a noted mudger, while Pittsburgher, Sweep All and Spanish Play, the three leading entrants from the west, also are at their best in heavy going.

Final pre-Derby races were scheduled for today. Few of the candidates were allowed to work out yesterday, although Equipoise and Ladder were sent through short sharp runners.

Mate Is Favored

According to general opinion, Mate, winner of the Preakness, will go to the barrier a favorite to capture the annual Kentucky classic. Twenty Grand probably will rule second choice with the remainder of the field well split up.

Following is the entry list as it stacks up two days before the fifty-seventh annual running of the race:

Horse	Jockey
X-Twenty Grand	C. Kurtsinger
X-Surf Board	L. McAtee
Mate	G. Ellis
Ladder	L. Schaffer
Equipoise	R. Workman
Pittsburgher	C. Corbett
Sweep All	F. Pool
Inco	S. O'Donnell
Spanish Play	W. Fronk
Up	C. McHugh

Chicago, May 14 (UP)—The west's three leading candidates for the 57th running of the Kentucky Derby Saturday at Churchill Downs are Pittsburgher, Spanish Play and Sweep All. There is a good chance that Inco and Up also will go to the post, but the rest of the western entries are doubtful starters.

Thus the west hasn't a very formidable group to pit against the east's representatives, Mate, Equipoise, Twenty Grand, Anchors Aweigh, Ladder and Surf Board.

Pittsburgher, big bay son of In Memoriam-Wisteria, seems to be the west's greatest hope for victory. He is owned by Theodore Mueller. With three victories to his credit this season, Pittsburgher has won more races as a three-year-old than any other Derby candidate.

His latest triumph was in the Derby trial at a mile and 70 yards over a muddy track in the good time of 1:45.3.5. Spanish Play, Sweep All and three other Derby candidates trailed him. Before this race Trainer Jim Moody said:

Horse Needs Work
"I don't see any chance for Pittsburgher in this muddy going. He needs work and that's why we are starting him. I had much rather see him lose the race and get the work than to put him through a morning gallop."

So Pittsburgher, who jooks and acts a lot like his uncle, Exterminator, winner of the 1918 Derby, has proved himself even a better colt than his handlers had imagined. He may be even good enough to outrace the east's highly-touted thoroughbreds when he is put to the test Saturday. Spanish Play and Up are winter track horses and for that reason haven't been given much consideration for the Derby. Spanish Play won the Louisiana Derby, but in his first start since leaving the winter tracks he was beaten by Pittsburgher.

er. In the Derby trial Pittsburgher again outraced him.

Up, owned by Mrs. J. N. Crofton, is the foremost candidate the far west has sent to Kentucky in several years. He won the Agua Caliente Derby, but in his first start at Churchill Downs finished last, some 20 lengths behind Pittsburgher, the winner. Up, however, came back this week to win a handicap race from some very good horses, including Mike Hall, winner of the $100,000 Agua Caliente handicap.

Inco May Surprise
Inco is a horse that may spring a surprise. As a two-year-old he hadn't shown much until the Post and Paddock stakes at Arlington and then he bobbed with a spectacular victory. He is the son of Sir Gallahad II-Starlight, and there are few better bred horses in the Derby. Gallant Fox was a son of Sir Gallahad II.

Sweep All was coming with a great rush at the finish of the Derby trial which has indicated that the Dixiana farm colt likes the longer Derby distance of a mile and a quarter. Some backers of Sweep All even claimed he had been roughed around a bit in this race won by Pittsburgher.

The consensus among the western horse men is that either Pittsburgher or Inco will have to give the west whatever laurels it garners from this year's Derby, with hardly more than an outside chance of a western victory at all events.

The west has won four out of the last seven Derbies. Black Gold in 1924, Bubbling Over in 1926, Reigh Count in 1928 and Clyde Van Dusen in 1929. The east won in 1925 with Flying Ebony, in 1927 with Whiskery and in 1930 with Gallant Fox.

Glory Of Derby Sung in Classic By Irvin S. Cobb

New York, May 14 (UP)—The glories of the Kentucky Derby, one of America's great traditions, will be sung in thousands of words the next three days—but for sheer prose poetry Irvin S. Cobb has set the pace with a single paragraph.

The famous humorist and storyteller of Paducah, born and raised in the Blue Grass country, stepped to the microphone last night and in some 180 words, produced a description of the Churchill Downs classic that is likely to survive for many derbies to come.

Grantland Rice first interviewed Cobb on the general subject of horse racing, and was promptly taken to task for referring to the Kentucky event as a "dabby."

"What business has a country boy from Tennessee get calling the Derby a 'Dabby?'" inquired Cobb. "You might possibly get away with that 'Dabby' stuff if you had spats and a monocle and an Oxford accent and a set of those large, limpid British adenoids such as only true Britons have. But you—why, you are as southern as chicken gravy on a preceding elder's vest."

"What do you think of the Witteney and other northerners coming to Kentucky with so many Derby winners?" Cobb was asked.

"Pardon me - these foreigners never come to Kentucky with Derby winners," he replied. "They come to Kentucky to get the stock to win the Derbies with. And remember this—when these worshipful giants of the turf, such as Man-o-War and Morwick, quit running races, do they settle down on Park avenue for the winter or spend their summers at Newport? They do not. They come back home to the blue grass, to the folks who really love them and appreciate 'em, and we make holy shrines of their stables while they live and pious pilgrimages to their graves after they're dead. Why, we've got more tombstones erected to horsemen than we have to statesmen. But then, Henry Clays have been running very few these last few years."

Finally Rice asked his subject for a word-picture of the Kentucky Derby, and Cobb replied: "Granny, if I could do that, I'd have to have a larynx of spun silver and the tongue of an anointed angel. But if you can imagine a track that's like a bracelet of molten gold encircling a greensward that's like a patch of emerald velvet—all the pretty girls in the state turning the grandstand into a broadened terrace of beauty and color such as the hanging gardens of Babylon never equalled—all the assembled sportsmen of the nation going crazy at once in the paddock—the entire colored population of Louisville and environs with one voice begging some entry to come on and win—and just yonder in the yellow dust the galant kings and noble queens of the equine kingdom, the princesses royal and the heirs apparent fighting it out—each a symphony of satin coat and slim legs and panting nostrils—each a vision of courage and heart and speed—each topped as though with some bobby gay blossom by a silken-clad maytime jockey—but what's the use? Until you go to Kentucky and with your own eyes behold the Derby you ain't never been nowhere and you ain't never seen nothing."

Baseball Gossip

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Though held back by cold and wet weather since they reached the farthest western outposts, the eastern teams already have managed to demonstrate pretty conclusively that they still hold the balance of power in the American League.

They have won eleven of their first fourteen inter-sectional engagements. Through yesterday's games the champion Philadelphia Athletics had scored three straight over their western rivals, the New York Yankees had won a pair between rains, Washington had won three out of four and the Boston Red Sox three out of five.

But for a staunch stand by the Detroit Tigers the rout of the western clubs would so far have been complete. The Tigers have won all three victories credited to their section. Cleveland's Indians have made the most disappointing showing against the invaders, losing four straight and dropping within a week from the top to fifth place.

The Athletics, who went into first place Tuesday, continued to mow down the westerners. They went 11 innings to defeat the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 5, after home runs by Cochrane and Miller in the eighth and ninth innings had enabled them to tie the score. It was their fifth straight victory and the tenth out of their last twelve starts. George Earnshaw held the Hose to nine hits and none the last four frames.

Lou Gehrig doubled in the eighth inning to score Jimmy Reese and gave the Yankees a close 3 to 2 decision over the St. Louis Browns in their first meeting of the year. George Buehler did not allow the Yanks a hit until the seventh when they bunched three of them to score twice and tie it up.

Milt Gaston, Red Sox right-hand er lost a tough 2 to 1 verdict to Detroit when errors helped the Tigers score.

Wes Ferrell was driven from the mound under a fourth-inning barrage as the Washington Senators won their opener from Cleveland, 9 to 3. Lloyd Brown, Senator southpaw, yielded only eight hits, one of which was Averill's fourth homer.

Rain and cold weather on the eastern seaboard threw the National League for a total loss.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By Associated Press
George Earnshaw, Athletics—Held White Sox to nine hits in eleven innings to win third straight victory 7-5.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees—Doubled in eighth inning bringing in Reese with run that beat Browns 3 to 2.

Lloyd Brown, Senators—Turned back Cleveland with eight hits for 9 to 3 victory.

Marty McManus, Tigers—Drove in deciding run in 2-1 triumph over Red Sox.

SEES NO SET-UPS

St. Louis, May 14 (AP)—If there are any set-ups in the American League this year, Joe McCarthy, new skipper of the New York Yankees, hasn't seen them yet.

Marse Joe, paying his first visit to St. Louis as an American League pilot, explained today he had not seen the Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers in action yet, but called the other clubs "good ball teams."

An interviewer reminded McCarthy that Connie Mack recently picked the Yankees to give the Athletics plenty of trouble before the season is over.

"I have the greatest respect for Mr. Mack's judgment," he replied with a smile, and "I'll take his word for it, especially as I am quite sure he's right."

VOSMIK BENCHED

Cleveland, May 14 (AP)—Joe Vosmik, Cleveland's sensational recruit of the early days of the American League season, is going to warm the bench for a while at least. Manager Roger Peckinpaugh said Vosmik would be supplanted in left field today by the veteran Charley Jamieson. Vosmik's batting has steadily declined and Peck believes a rest of a week or so is the cure.

WITNESSES TELL STORY OF DEATH OF MISS GRAVES

Virgil Kirkland Trial Is Repetition Of First Early In Year

Valparaiso, Ind., May 13—(UP)—Virgil Kirkland, 20-year-old athlete, almost collapsed when he viewed the body of Arlene Graves, the 18-year-old sweetheart he is accused of murdering, Lieut. Paul Thixton, Gary policeman, testified today at Kirkland's second trial.

Kirkland sat impassively beside his mother and father in the courtroom as Lieut. Thixton related his trip with the youth to the morgue where Arlene's body had been taken when her death during a younger set drinking party was discovered.

Thixton testified it was after Kirkland's near-collapse during the visit to the morgue that the youth admitted having been intimate with Arlene during the party.

It was the same story the officer told at the first trial, except the defense attempted to attack testimony that Arlene's garments were blood stained by injuries she suffered during the party.

Thixton answered that challenge by holding up the garments before the jury and pointing out spots caused by blood although time had almost obliterated them.

Murrell Clements, Miss Graves' brother-in-law, testified that Kirkland came to his home at dawn last Nov. 1, carrying Arlene's hat and coat, announced that "Arlene's dead," and waited until police came to arrest him.

Clothing Identified
Detective Ople Cross confirmed the details of Kirkland's arrest, while Carolyn Graves, Arlene's school teacher sister, resumed the stand to go through the formality of identifying the dead girl's clothing.

Altogether, it was a parading of stories already detailed in Kirkland's first trial, when the youth was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, only to win a pardon in which the state has reduced the possible verdicts to two—the death penalty or freedom.

Prosecutor John Underwood, who opposed broadcasting the proceedings when the suggestion was made by representations of radio station WBBM, Chicago, called newspapermen into conference during the noon recess to administer a lecture.

Underwood declared he would have all press representatives excluded if any of them misquoted the proceedings or persisted in publishing stories based on hearsay. He said one newspaper misrepresented him as favorable to broadcasts of the trial.

May Use Lie Detector
Attorney Oscar Thiel announced Kirkland again would testify and would submit to a "lie detector" test upon the stand. This instrument, perfected by police experts of Northwestern University, is intended to record minute blood pressure changes when the subject tells an untruth.

The lawyer said Kirkland had been subjected to the test and his reactions "proved him innocent."

The first witnesses were called to the stand late yesterday, after more than two weeks had been spent securing a jury. These described the appearance of Miss Graves' body after Kirkland and several companions carried her into a doctor's office, then ran when told that she was dead.

Caroline Graves, and Edgar Owen, Chief Deputy Coroner of Lake county, repeated testimony given at the first trial in which they told of bruises, scratches and abrasions on the body of the girl.

Detective George Haas, Gary, identified a blood-stained seat cover on which he said the unconscious girl had lain. He also identified a blood-stained shirt worn by Kirkland on the night of tragedy and the girl's slippers which he said were found under a front seat.

Taking of testimony is expected to consume two weeks. Both sides have announced they would present new witnesses.

Coal Production In State On Increase
Springfield, Ill., May 14—(AP)—Illinois joined other mining states of the Union in boosting the total production of coal during the last week of April and the first week of May.

Production of soft coal showed a slight increase during the week ending May 2, with the total output estimated at 6,447,000 net tons for the country at large. This was a gain of 133,000 net tons or 2 per cent as compared with the preceding week. Productions during the corresponding week in 1930 was 8,335,000 net tons.

The total production of soft coal during the present calendar year to May 2, approximately 104 working days, amounted to 134,030,000 net tons, the lowest figure for corresponding periods in the last ten years.

Illinois mines produced 675,000 tons during the week ending April 25 and 650,000 net tons during the previous week. Both of these figures were approximately 200,000 tons under production for corresponding weeks a year ago.

Because of the business depression the tonnage mined mechanically decreased in certain states but in the majority there was a large increase. Illinois, with a 24.9 per cent increase was fourth among the states that showed increased in mechanical operation. In 1929 total output in the state by mechanical mining was 18,252,000 net tons. Last year this output was increased by 4,551,000 net tons.

He writes: "Having heard of a complete recovery through use of ULCICUR (which I personally verified) and being on the verge of an operation, I was persuaded to try it, and the immediate results were a revelation to me in the relief it afforded."

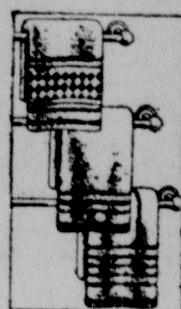

History of case, from Laboratory examination, St. Bernard's Hospital, indicated Duodenal Ulcers. Symptoms: excruciating distress four or five hours after eating, heart burn, excessive gas. Case was of six years' duration.

Sincerely yours,

HEAVY TRACK IN PROSPECT; DERBY LIST IS REDUCED

Field Is Reduced To 11
Candidates: Mate Is Favored To Win

BY JAMES M. KERR
By United Press

Louisville, Ky., May 14.—(UP)—Prospects of a slow track reduced the field for the Kentucky Derby to eleven candidates today.

Additional rain yesterday almost definitely eliminated Boys Howdy, H. C. Hatch's three-year-old, from the list of probable starters. Boys Howdy has been unable to go through a good workout because of the muddy condition of Churchill Downs and unless the track dries up considerably today, Hatch will withdraw his eligible.

Even if no more rain falls, it is doubtful if the racing strip will be completely dried out by Saturday. Should the track continue muddy, Equipoise probably will gain much support. Equipoise is a noted mudder, while Pittsburgher, Sweep All and Spanish Play, the three leading entrants from the west, also are at their best in heavy going.

Final pre-Derby races were scheduled for today. Few of the candidates were allowed to work out yesterday, although Equipoise and Ladder were sent through short speed sharpeners.

Mate Is Favored
According to general opinion, Mate, winner of the Preakness, will go to the barrier a favorite to capture the annual Kentucky classic. Twenty Grand probably will rule second choice with the remainder of the field well split up.

Following is the entry list as it stacks up two days before the fifty-seventh annual running of the race:

Horse	Jockey	Trainer
X-Twenty Grand	C. Kurlinger	C. O'Donnell
X-Surf Board	L. McAtee	C. Corbett
Mate	G. Ellis	F. Pool
Ladder	L. Schaffer	S. O'Donnell

Post, but the rest of the western entries are doubtful starters.

Thus the west hasn't a very formidable group to pit against the east's representatives, Mate, Equipoise, Twenty Grand, Anchors Aweigh, Ladder and Surf Board.

Pittsburgher, big bay son of In Memoriam-Wisteria, seems to be the west's greatest hope for victory. He is owned by Theodore Mueller. With three victories to his credit this season, Pittsburgher has won more races as a three-year-old than any other Derby candidate.

His latest triumph was in the Derby trial at a mile and 70 yards over a muddy track in the good time of 45.35. Spanish Play, Sweep All and three other Derby candidates trailed him. Before this race Trainer Jim Moody said:

"I don't see any chance for Pittsburgher in this muddy going. He needs work and that's why we are starting him. I had much rather see him lose the race and get the work than to put him through a morning gallop."

So Pittsburgher, who looks and acts a lot like his uncle, Exterminator winner of the 1918 Derby, has proved himself even a better colt than his handlers had imagined. He may be even good enough to outrace the east's highly-touted thoroughbreds when he is put to the test Saturday.

Spanish Play and Up are winter track horses and for that reason haven't been given much consideration for the Derby. Spanish Play won the Louisiana Derby, but in his first start since leaving the winter tracks he was beaten by Pittsburgher.

er. In the Derby trial Pittsburgher again outraced him.
Up, owned by Mrs. J. N. Crofton, is the foremost candidate the far west has sent to Kentucky in several years. He won the Agua Caliente Derby, but in his first start at Churchill Downs finished last, some 20 lengths behind Pittsburgher, the winner. Up, however, came back this week to win a handicap race from some very good horses, including Mike Hall, winner of the $100,000 Agua Caliente handicap.

Inso May Surprise

Inso is a horse that may spring a surprise. As a two-year-old he hadn't shown much until the Post and Paddock stakes at Arlington and then he bobbed with a spectacular victory. He is the son of Sir Gallahad II-Starflight, and there are few better bred horses in the Derby. Gallant Fox was a son of Sir Gallahad III.

Sweep All was coming with a great rush at the finish of the Derby trial which has indicated that the Dixiana farm colt likes the longer Derby distance of a mile and a quarter. Some backers of Sweep All even claimed he had been roughed around a bit in this race won by Pittsburgher.

The consensus among the western horse men is that either Pittsburgher or Inso will have to give the west whatever laurels it garners from this year's Derby, with hardly more than an outside chance of a western victory at all events.

The west has won four out of the last seven Derbies, Black Gold in 1924, Bubbling Over in 1926, Religh Count in 1928 and Clyde Van Dusen in 1929. The east won in 1925 with Flying Ebony, in 1927 with Whiskery and in 1930 with Gallant Fox.

monocle and an Oxford accent and a set of those large, limpid British adenoids such as only true Britons have. But you—why, you are as southern as chicken gravy on a presidential vest."

"What do you think of the Wittneys and other northerners coming to Kentucky with so many Derby winners?" Cobb was asked.

"Pardon me - these foreigners never come to Kentucky with Derby winners," he replied. "They come to Kentucky to get the stock to win the Derbies with. And remember this—when these worshipful giants of the turf, such as Man-o-War and Morvich, quit running races, do they settle down on Park avenue for the winter or spend their summers at Newport? They do not. They come back home to the blue grass, to the folks who really love them and appreciate 'em, and we make holy shrines of their stables while they live and pious pilgrimages to their graves after they're dead. Why, we've got more tombstones erected to horsemen than we have to statesmen. But then, Henry Clays have been running very few these last few years."

Finally Rice asked his subject for a word-picture of the Kentucky Derby, and Cobb replied:

"Granny, if I could do that, I'd have to have a larynx of spun silver and the tongue of an anointed angel. But if you can imagine a track that's like a bracelet of molten gold encircling a greensward that's like a patch of emerald velvet—all the pretty girls in the state turning the grandstand into a broadened terrace of beauty and color such as the hanging gardens of Babylon never equalled—all the assembled sportsmen of the nation going crazy at once in the paddock—the entire colored population of Louisville and environs with one voice begging some entry to come on and win—and just yonder in the yellow dust the galant kings and noble queens of the equine kingdom, the princesses royal and the heirs apparent fighting it out—each a symphony of satin coat and slim legs and panting nostrils—each a vision of courage and heart and speed—each topped as though with some bobby ray blossom by a silken-clad maytime jockey—what's the use? Until you go to Kentucky and with your own eyes behold the Derby you ain't never seen nothing."

The famous humorist and storyteller of Paducah, born and raised in the Blue Grass country, stepped to the microphone last night and in some 180 words, produced a description of the Churchill Downs classic that is likely to survive for many derbies to come.

Grantland Rice first interviewed Cobb on the general subject of horse racing, and was promptly taken to task for referring to the Kentucky event as a "dabby."

"What business has a country boy from Tennessee got calling the Derby a 'dabby'?" inquired Cobb. "You might possibly get away with that 'dabby' stuff if you had spats and a

Baseball Gossip

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Though held back by cold and wet weather since they reached the farthest western outposts, the eastern teams already have managed to demonstrate pretty conclusively that they still hold the balance of power in the American League.

They have won eleven of their first fourteen inter-sectional engagements. Through yesterday's games the champion Philadelphia Athletics had scored three straight over their western rivals, the New York Yankees had won a pair between rains, Washington had won three out of four and the Boston Red Sox three out of five.

But for a staunch stand by the Detroit Tigers the rout of the western clubs would so far have been complete. The Tigers have won all three victories credited to their section. Cleveland's Indians have made the most disappointing showing against the invaders, losing four straight and dropping within a week from the top to fifth place.

The Athletics, who went into first place Tuesday, continued to mow down the westerners. They went 11 innings to defeat the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 5, after home runs by Cochrane and Miller in the eighth and ninth innings had enabled them to tie the score. It was their fifth straight victory and the tenth out of their last twelve starts. George Earnshaw held the Sox to nine hits and none the last four frames.

Lou Gehrig doubled in the eighth inning to score Jimmy Reese and gave the Yankees a close 3 to 2 decision over the St. Louis Browns in their first meeting of the year. George Blacholder did not allow the Yanks a hit until the seventh when they bunched three of them to score twice and tie it up.

Milt Gaston, Red Sox right-handed, lost a tough 2 to 1 verdict to Detroit when errors helped the Tigers score.

Wes Ferrell was driven from the mound under a fourth-inning barrage as the Washington Senators won their opener from Cleveland, 9 to 3. Lloyd Brown, Senator south-paw, yielded only eight hits, one of which was Averill's fourth homer.

Rain and cold weather on the eastern seaboard threw the National League for a total loss.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

George Earnshaw, Athletics—Held White Sox to nine hits in eleven innings to win third straight victory 7-5.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees—Doubled in eighth inning bringing in Reese with run; that beat Browns 3 to 2.

Lloyd Brown, Senators—Turned back Cleveland with eight hits for 3 to 3 victory.

Marty McManus, Tigers—Drove in deciding run in 2-1 triumph over Red Sox.

SEES NO SET-UPS
St. Louis, May 14.—(AP)—If there are any set-ups in the American League this year, Joe McCarthy, new skipper of the New York Yankees, hasn't seen them yet.

Marse Joe, paying his first visit to St. Louis as an American League pilot, explained today he had not seen the Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers in action yet, but called the other clubs "good ball teams."

An interviewer reminded McCarthy that Connie Mack recently picked the Yankees to give the Athletics plenty of trouble before the season is over.

"I have the greatest respect for Mr. Mack's judgment," he replied with a smile, and "I'll take his word for it, especially as I am quite sure he's right."

VOSMIK BENCHED
Cleveland, May 14.—(AP)—Joe Vosmik, Cleveland's sensational recruit of the early days of the American League season, is going to warm the bench for a while at least. Manager Roger Peckinpaugh said Vosmik would be supplanted in left field today by the veteran Charley Jamieson. Vosmik's batting has steadily declined and Peck believes a rest of a week or so is the cure.

Schmeling Will Get 40 Per Cent Of Gate

Cleveland, O., May 14.—(UP)—Max Schmeling will receive 40 per cent of the gate receipts for defending his title against W. L. "Young" Stribling here July 3, it was revealed today as Richard G. Dunn, vice-president of the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Ohio, discussed contracts to be filed with the Cleveland Boxing Commission tomorrow.

The Georgia challenger will receive 12 1/2 per cent, it was learned. The champion's 40 per cent does not include a flat guarantee for the 15-round bout. He will receive that per cent after taxes and expenses of bout officials have been deducted.

Schmeling's per cent, it was learned, will be larger than any heavyweight champion has ever been paid for defending his title. Gene Tunney was guaranteed $500,000 or the privilege of 37 1/2 per cent for his Chicago bout with Jack Dempsey.

The Stadium, now rapidly nearing completion, will include a seating capacity of 140,000. With reservations for seats already indicating advance sales of $250,000, Garden officials predict a "sell-out" or a "million dollar gate."

Automobile owners pay gasoline taxes of $500,000,000 a year in the United States, in addition to $350,000,000 for registration and license fees.

Para Pepsin Surely Making Fast Friends

Mrs. Charles D. Smith, Heyworth, Ill.

"Para Pepsin has completely relieved me of constipation and stomach trouble. For several months I had been taking powerful laxatives and then would have to change, for after taking for a length of time they had no action. I had terrible pains in my stomach that would nearly double me up in agony and at times I feared appendicitis, but Para Pepsin relieved me. I can recommend it to anyone troubled with constipation and the many ills that result."

PARA PEPSIN, the new laxative- tonic, is being introduced at the Schildberg's Pharmacy in Dixon and is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute.

Is Your Bladder Weak? Do You Get Up Nights?

If your bladder is weak and you get up nights, suffer from frequent and painful urination, dribbling highly colored urine, you should take immediate steps to remove the cause. These are danger signals. Nature requires assistance; the trouble won't wear off or get well without proper aid. It grows worse.

BOND'S K AND B is a prescription intended solely for the urinary organs. If you have any of the above symptoms, get a bottle from Sterling's Drug Store today—don't wait. Price 60c or $1.20.—Adv.

WITNESSES TELL STORY OF DEATH OF MISS GRAVES

Virgil Kirkland Trial Is Repetition Of First Early In Year

Valparaiso, Ind., May 13—(UP)—Virgil Kirkland, 20-year-old athlete, almost collapsed when he viewed the body of Arlene Graves, the 18-year-old sweetheart he is accused of murdering, Lieut. Paul Thixton, Gary policeman, testified today at Kirkland's second trial.

Kirkland sat impassively beside his mother and father in the courtroom as Lieut. Thixton related his trip with the youth to the morgue where Arlene's body had been taken when her death during a younger set stinking party was discovered.

Thixton testified it was after Kirkland's near-collapse during the visit to the morgue that the youth admitted having been intimate with Arlene during the party.

It was the same story the officer told at the first trial, except the defense attempted to attack testimony that Arlene's garments were blood stained by injuries she suffered during the party.

Thixton answered that challenge by holding up the garments before the jury and pointing out spots, caused by blood although time had almost obliterated them.

Murrell Clements, Miss Draves' brother-in-law, testified that Kirkland came to his home at dawn last Nov. 1, carrying Arlene's hat and coat, announced that "Arlene's dead—she fell," and waited until police came to arrest him.

Clothing Identified
Detective Ople Cross confirmed the details of Kirkland's arrest, while Carolyn Draves, Arlene's school teacher sister, resumed the stand to go through the formality of identifying the dead girl's clothing.

Altogether, it was a parading of stories already detailed in Kirkland's first trial, when the youth was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, only to win a retrial in which the state has reduced the possible verdicts to two—the death penalty or freedom.

Prosecutor John Underwood, who opposed broadcasting the proceedings when the suggestion was made by representations of radio station WBBM, Chicago, called newspapermen into conference during the noon recess to administer a lecture.

Underwood declared he would have all press representatives excluded if any of them misquoted the proceedings or persisted in publishing stories based on hearsay. He said one newspaper misrepresented him as favorable to broadcasts of the trial.

May Use Lie Detector
Attorney Oscar Thiel announced Kirkland again would testify and would submit to a "lie detector" test upon the stand. This instrument, perfected by police experts of Northwestern University, is intended to record minute blood pressure changes when the subject tells an untruth.

The lawyer said Kirkland had been subjected to the test and his reactions "proved him innocent."

The first witnesses were called to the stand late yesterday, after more than two weeks had been spent securing a jury. These described the appearance of Miss Draves' body after Kirkland and several companions carried her into a doctor's office, then ran when told that she was dead.

Caroline Draves, and Edgar Owen, Chief Deputy Coroner of Lake county, repeated testimony given at the first trial in which they told of bruises, scratches and abrasions on the body of the girl.

Detective George Haas, Gary, identified a blood-stained seat cover on which he said the unconscious girl had lain. He also identified a blood-stained shirt worn by Kirkland on the night of tragedy and the girl's slippers which he said were found under a front seat.

Taking of testimony is expected to resume two weeks. Both sides have announced they would present new witnesses.

SUE FOR DEAD BULL

Peoria, Ill., May 13—(UP)—The ghost of a $40,000 prize Aberdeen Angus bull, which died 10 years ago, figuratively stalked through federal court here yesterday, as his erstwhile owners sought to collect $15,000 which they declared still was owing for the animal.

Charles and Edwin Caldwell of Missouri declared Lewis B. Canum of Mercer county, bought the bull for $40,000 more than a decade ago but had paid them only $25,000. The Caldwell brothers secured a judgment for the remaining $15,000 but then discovered that Canum had transferred his property to the First National Bank of Aledo, Ill., and the Joint Stock Land Bank of Burlington, Ia. The brothers now seek to have the transfer set aside.

Coal Production In State On Increase

Springfield, Ill., May 14—(AP)—Illinois joined other mining states of the Union in boosting the total production of coal during the last week of April and the first week of May.

Production of soft coal showed a slight increase during the week ending May 2, with the total output estimated at 6,447,000 net tons for the country at large. This was a gain of 133,000 net tons or 2 per cent as compared with the preceding week. Productions during the corresponding week in 1930 was 8,335,000 net tons.

The total production of soft coal during the present calendar year to May 2, approximately 104 working days, amounted to 134,030,000 net tons, the lowest figure for corresponding periods in the last ten years.

Illinois mines produced 675,000 tons during the week ending April 25 and 650,000 net tons during the previous week. Both of these figures were approximately 200,000 tons under production for corresponding weeks a year ago.

Because of the business depression the tonnage mined mechanically decreased in certain states but in the majority there was a large increase. Illinois, with a 24.9 per cent increase was fourth among the states that showed increased in mechanical operation. In 1929 total output in the state by mechanical mining was 18,232,000 net tons. Last year this output was increased by 4,551,000 net tons.

You're WRONG—
Yes, Wrong All Over, Through and Through, if You Have Stomach Ulcers

Stomach trouble, especially stomach ulcers, will lessen your earning power, keep you under weight and even spoil your disposition. You know how true this is, if you are afflicted with Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heart Burn, Gas, tritis or any of the many ways Nature has for telling you to hurry up and start taking ULCICUR. Let Mr. Kirkpatrick of Chicago tell you of his experience. He writes: "Having heard of a complete recovery through use of ULCICUR (which I personally verified) and being on the verge of an operation, I was persuaded to try it, and the immediate results were a revelation to me in the relief it afforded."

History of case, from Laboratory examination, St. Bernard's Hospital, indicated Duodenal Ulcers. Symptoms: extreme distress four or five hours after eating, heart burn, excessive gas. Case was of six years' duration."

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) G. W. KIRKPATRICK

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's church in Freeport on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock in which Miss Kathryn Oberhardt became the bride of Arthur Vickrey. The bride was attired in light green and wore a tan hat. She was attended by Miss Gladys Miller, a close friend who also wore clothes to match the bride's. The groom was attended by Frederick Oberhardt, a brother of the bride, and both men wore conventional black.

Following the wedding ceremony a wedding breakfast was served by the bride's parents where the close friends and relatives had gathered. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oberhardt, who resided upon a farm west of town for many years moving to Freeport about three years ago. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Vickrey, who operate a very successful dairy farm south of town. Both of the young folks attended the local school and were popular in society circles.

Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Vickrey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoerner and family.

Miss Agnes Quinn returned to her home at Belvidere on Wednesday after spending several days here visiting with her many friends and former neighbors.

J. W. Thier was a business caller in Dixon on Monday.

High School Play

The pupils of the high school are rehearsing their play entitled "The City Feller" which they will present here on May 21st. This is a three-act comedy in which life is a drab dreary proposition to Lizzie, Cleta Halbmaier, until the city feller, Sylvan Jeanblanc, arrives upon the scene bringing promise of riches to Grandpa Simpson, Gerald Koehler, Lizzie's only friend.

The city feller takes grandpa's money as well as Auntie Purvis's and leaves town. Much gossip and trouble combined with humor follows. What actually happens will be revealed by the following cast of characters:

Jim Simpson—A farmer—Oliver Gehant.

Marthy Simpson—Jim's wife—Evelyn Chacon.

Lizzie Brown—An orphan—Cleta Halbmaier.

Grandpa Simpson—Old, but ambitious—Gerald Koehler.

Auntie Purvis—Sallie's mother—Charlotte Bieschke.

Lemuel Hecker—Small-town slicker—Florian Walter.

Phil Granger—The city feller—Sylvan Jeanblanc.

Sallie Hecker—Lemuel's widowed mother—Alice Dolan.

Jeff Biggs—The town marshal—Ray Johnson.

Orrin Ruddy—Village postmaster—Henry Gehant.

There will be special entertainment between acts.

Clyde Grimes was here from Viola on Wednesday calling upon friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Lipps motored to Dixon on Saturday where they called upon friends.

Rev. Urban Halbmaier was down from Belvidere on Tuesday evening and visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halbmaier.

Many of the friends and relatives of the Theodore Barlow family of Amboy motored to that city on Tuesday where they paid their last respects to Mr. Barlow, who had passed away there on Sunday evening rather suddenly. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow formerly made their home here where he was interested in the hardware firm of Bernardin and Barlow.

Later, when the store was disposed of, they moved to Amboy where Theodore worked at various jobs, and was employed at a service station until his death. He was a stepbrother of Henry A. and Charles Bernardin of this vicinity and Mrs. Barlow was a daughter of Mr. and Alexander Henry. The widow has the sympathy of her many friends in this, their former home. It is very seldom that the amount of bonds voted upon for public improvements, etc. reach, but Viola township have broken all records. In the April election they voted a special gravel road bond of $25,000 and after the letting of the contracts for material and hauling they find that $25,000 will cover the cost very nicely besides adding an extra mile and a half to the road program as originally planned.

July 3 Last Day Veteran Can Make Insurance Claim

Even though a disabled veteran of the World War who carried War Risk Insurance has not paid any premium thereon since his discharge from the military service, if he makes claim in writing between now and July 3, of this year he will thereby preserve his rights to resort to court action thereafter if such procedure is necessary. This letter should state plainly that the veteran desires to claim insurance benefits under the permanent and total disability clause of his contract from a date when his policy was in force, which is usually from the date of disability if he was disabled while in the service.

First, he should submit proof to the Veterans' Bureau to establish to the satisfaction of the Bureau that continuously since his discharge, he has been suffering from an impairment of mind or body which made it impossible for him to follow continuously any substantially gainful occupation and that condition has existed since his discharge from the service, and is likely to continue through the remainder of his life. Then, should the Bureau deny his claim, he is afforded an opportunity to go into court and establish his claim before a jury.

Many of the friends and relatives of the Theodore Barlow family of Amboy motored to that city on Tuesday where they paid their last respects to Mr. Barlow, who had passed away there on Sunday evening rather suddenly. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow formerly made their home here where he was interested in the hardware firm of Bernardin and Barlow.

Later, when the store was disposed of, they moved to Amboy where Theodore worked at various jobs, and was employed at a service station until his death. He was a stepbrother of Henry A. and Charles Bernardin of this vicinity and Mrs. Barlow was a daughter of Mr. and Alexander Henry. The widow has the sympathy of her many friends in this, their former home. It is very seldom that the amount of bonds voted upon for public improvements, etc. reach, but Viola township have broken all records. In the April election they voted a special gravel road bond of $25,000 and after the letting of the contracts for material and hauling they find that $25,000 will cover the cost very nicely besides adding an extra mile and a half to the road program as originally planned.

Last Heath Hen To Continue As Loneliest Bach

Washington—The last heath hen on earth is also fated to remain the loneliest bachelor on earth, despite pleas of sentimental match-makers for "just any sort of companion" to brighten his old age.

This sole survivor of his race recently proclaimed his existence again to a waiting world of bird-lovers by emerging in good health from his winter hiding on Martha's Vineyard Island, Massachusetts, reported a bulletin of the American Game Association.

But no mate waited to greet him on the ancestral booming field of his tribe, a meadow near West Tisbury. Nor did he seem to expect one, for he did not boom or strut. He has not gone through his quest courtship antics since the spring of 1929, when, as the only heath hen living, his repeated performance went unnoticed—except by photographers, bird students and curious tourists watching from ambush.

"Many earnest requests have been received that the last heath hen be given a female prairie chicken or some other near relative as a mate," said Prof. Alfred O. Gross, of Bowdoin College, Maine, who for a number of years has conducted the annual heath hen census for the Massachusetts division of fisheries and game.

"Past experience has proved that this would be useless," he said. "When frantic efforts were being made to save these once extremely numerous New England birds from extinction, after they had disappeared everywhere except on Martha's Vineyard Island, their middle western prairie cousins were introduced in large numbers, but they immediately died off. This family of birds is not adaptable to new or changing environment. For this reason the heath hen's fate can be predicted for the prairie chicken in the not distant future unless protected refuges are established."

On its reappearance this spring the last heath hen was captured in a net trap, and both legs marked with numbered metal bands. The procedure was a gloomy forecast of the inevitable day when the bird can be expected to slip up in his constant battle against hawks, owls and predatory animals. The identifying bands will then serve conclusive notice that the heath hen has joined five other American birds in extinction.

President Learns Of Masons' Plans

Washington, May 14.—(AP)—David Lynn, architect of the Capitol, and Harvey W. Corbett, a New York architect, laid before President Hoover yesterday plans for the development of Temple Heights where the Masons are planning to erect a temple and a group of buildings.

The site is at Connecticut and Florida Avenues and there has been some difficulty getting the permission of the Capital Planning Commission for the construction because the ground is so high that the buildings would over shadow other buildings in the neighborhood.

ENDS PILES QUICK

No Salves—No Cutting. Your itching, bleeding, protruding piles will go when you actually remove the cause—bad blood circulation in the weak, flabby parts—and not one minute before. Salves or cutting can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. HEM-ROID prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record right in this city, that Rowland's Pharmacy says one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile agony or money back—Adv.

AN INVALID MANY MONTHS; GLY-CAS RESTORES HEALTH

Was Miserable With Rheumatism, Stomach, Kidney Trouble; Now Feels Fine, Is Entirely Well.

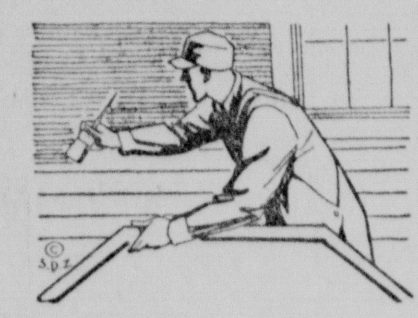

MRS. MINNIE STARK

"Gly-Cas seemed to be made for just such a case as mine," said Mrs. Minnie Stark, 903 South Keeler Ave., Bartlesville, Okla. "I had been an invalid many months before Gly-Cas came and restored my health."

For at least 25 years I had been troubled with constipation, kidneys and bladder had been out of order, had severe back pains and night risings, also attacks of indigestion after eating. Rheumatism settled over my body, crippling my legs so I could hardly walk, confined to bed at times, the pain I endured was most unbearable. Nothing helped me until I began taking Gly-Cas and it regulated my whole system; stomach, kidneys and bowels are in good condition, awful rheumatism has left me entirely, freed of all that pain and suffering. I really feel like new again and cannot praise Gly-Cas enough for the miraculous results it has given me."

Gly-Cas is sold by Schildberg's Pharmacy, 301 First St., Dixon, and by all leading drug stores in surrounding towns.—Adv.

THAT LITTLE BUT POWERFUL DIFFERENCE

GOLF CLUBS

LOOK MUCH ALIKE — BUT THEY'RE NOT

GASOLINES LOOK MUCH ALIKE — BUT THEY'RE NOT

A real golfer never buys a club on looks alone. He tests its "feel," its weight, its balance, its grip, its flexibility. A shrewd motorist never buys gasoline on looks alone, for gasolines look much alike. He tests its "feel at the wheel," its responsiveness, its power, its speed, its mileage.

Parco Ethyl Gasoline is the popular choice of those motorists who really understand the powerful difference in gasolines. That little difference in the line across the distillation chart determines how much quicker Parco Ethyl starts; how rapidly it accelerates; how much more powerful it is; and the extra mileage it delivers. THE DESERT'S PLEA
THEY wrong me who proclaim
 That I am but a desert waste
 I only sleep, and beauty's best
 I may supremely taste.

You have not summoned forth
 My forces, nor have deeply called
 My fettered energy that waits
 By guarding hillsides walled

The centuries have held
 My bounded silence wholly good,
 Then grant me this, oh eager man,
 I have not understood.

But give me cooling drink:
 Invest me with your willing skill
 And then behold my readiness
 To answer to your will.

I slumber as a child
 Who has not heard his nurse's voice;
 Cry out, lift up, for sleeping thus
 I have not any choice!

Plans For Season At Country Club Promise Pleasure

Secretary W. S. Marloth of the Dixon Country Club has outlined the year's activities of the club in the following letter to the members,

The various Committees have made preparations for another successful season.

The Ladies Executive Chairman, Mrs. George Shaw, has been fortunate in persuading the following to act on the Committees under her jurisdiction.

Social Committee—Mrs. C. G. Tyler and Mrs. I. E. McLaren.
 Ladies Sports Committee—Mrs. George Beier.
 House Committee—Mrs. S. C. Stanfield, Mrs. R. W. Sterling and Mrs. W. G. Murray.

These Committees have their program completed and this year's calendar will be published shortly. A new buffer has been installed so that the members can look forward to having their clubs well taken care of this season.

We have been fortunate in securing a very generous trade-in for our old power greens mowers and being successful in disposing of the hand mower purchased last year at a good price. The Club has purchased an absolutely modern power greens mower which our energetic greenskeeper tells us will improve our greens considerably, even over their business.

At 1 P. M. state officers will be introduced and Mae Swanson will deliver the address of welcome. Mary Reed of Oregon will give the response. A place for the next convention, selection of officers, reports, etc., will follow. At 7 P. M. memorial services will be held and the new officials will be installed.

condition last year. Mr. Spencer, our Professional-Greenskeeper, has been very busy and the Course is in excellent condition. Several improvements have been effected. The high bunker on the left of No. 2 has been lowered, thereby increasing the width of the entrance to the green by about four feet. A beautiful trap has been built to the right of No. 4 green to ensure the safety of players teeing off for No. 5. No. 5 has been made into a golf hole by the construction of traps and low bunkers in front of the green and the bunkers to the left and right of the green have been lowered so that the green presents a beautiful vista to those teeing off, but don't be deceived into thinking that you can reach the green with a niblick if it still takes a lusty poke and anyone who can roll onto the green between the cross bunkers would make the world's best pool player.

No. 6 has been made into a dog leg increasing the length 50 yards so that it is a par 5 hole and our course par is 36. The dog leg introduces plenty of variety into the methods of attack which should prove interesting, especially as the hill in the corner of the green has been removed and the trap flattened. Trees from the old hedge along No. 5 have been transplanted and if they grow, well and good, if they don't, too bad.

The Sports Committee, Messrs. Tyler, Stokes and Sullivan in conjunction with the Past times Committee, Messrs. Dysart, Kaufman and Wilkinson have engineered an excellent program, attached on separate sheet, and for the benefit of the many new members, have offered the following thoughts and suggestions.

The Sports Committee has arranged a larger golf program than usual and in order to have a successful season, it is absolutely necessary for every member to take part in all the event possible. Inter-club matches and golf events have been arranged for every Thursday during the entire season. A new kind of handicap tournament has been planned by the Sports and Pastimes Committees which will continue throughout the summer. Prizes will be given monthly for Class A and Class B players, and the monthly winners will play off the finals in both classes at the end of the season. It is hoped that this plan will meet with favor and that the member will all take part. To make a good beginning it is necessary that everyone take part in the qualifying round to be held on the Opening Day, May 30th.

Members are urged to post 18 hole scores early in the season. Handicaps will be kept to to date by the Sports Committee but it is necessary for scores to be posted just as early as possible. There is a larger number of inter-club matches than usual. New members of the Club as well as the old members are urged to attend the mail in order to make them a success.

For the benefit of the new members the following suggestions are made: At the home matches each member's opponent is his guest. He is probably a fine fellow and will appreciate being looked after as such. Dinner will be served promptly after the match and it is a tradition that each member take his opponent to the meal. Other clubs reciprocate at out of town matches. Finally, the Sports and Pastimes Committees have spent a great deal of time and work in arranging the golf calendar for 1931 and they bespeak every member's co-operation by taking part in all of the events.

Announcements will be made frequently on the bulletin board at the Club House as well as in the paper. From time to time requests have been made by a number of members for some exhibition golf to be played on our course. Accordingly the Sports Committee has made tentative plans for a professional-amateur and amateur-amateur contest for second Sunday in June. This will be a contest of two-man teams, the low ball only, scoring, and it is expected that some spectacular golf will be played. Definite announcements will be made later, but members are requested to refrain from playing during this contest. From present indications of interest there will probably be a good sized gallery to see the event.

The Committee on Tennis, Messrs. Tyler, Johnson and B. Shaw have been very active and plans are under way to construct a clay court next to the parking place which incidentally has been beautified by the planting of trees.

The Membership Committee, Messrs. O'Malley, Johnson and Countryman have been scouting for members. The weather has been against them and they need your help. Turn in the names of prospects and bring them out to play on our course so they can't help joining.

YOUR CHILDREN

by Olive Roberts Barton
 ©1931 BY NEA SERVICE INC.

We often hear that happiness lies in ourselves. It certainly does, but I do believe that the expression it too general to be well understood.

Happiness is not an emotion. We usually confuse it with pleasant excitement, and excitement, of course, is emotional. True happiness means contentment, and freedom from mental conflicts and perplexities.

Anyone who is ridden by wishes is seldom happy. Too much wishing is responsible for more unhappiness than anything else in the world.

Normal wishes are natural and right. Without them we would have no ambition, no incentive to do things, to be anybody. But wishes may bring an end to happiness as well as creating it; it all depends on the cause. For instance, if we wish to the extent of hating others, being jealous of them and feeling sorry for ourselves (a deliberately ruining our chances for happiness).

How to Restrict "Wishing"? Now all this long preamble brings us to the children. How can we keep them from being abnormal "wishers" so they may be content and happy and away from mental mental pulls?

I think that one way is to set an example. If parents are happy on an average, and show their children that they themselves can accept life without too much complaining, the children usually fall in step.

I have noticed this over and over in various homes. When the mother was bright and cheery and had learned that magic secret of being satisfied with her lot, when she was calm or smiling instead of drawn by discontented frowns into neurasthenic lines, the same placid behavior seemed to permeate the whole family.

Again, eyes less keen than mine can see quickly how the mother who frets herself about the things she cannot have, or do, or see, will quickly spread the contagion to her own children. As a mother's unhappy ambitions usually are for her children the germ acts still more ruinously.

There are other ways of bringing real happiness to children outside of this manner of acceptance but I think it is paramount. To learn to make the best of things, to be normally satisfied, to get away from corps of workers from the Auxiliary and other volunteer workers, will undoubtedly conduct a very successful sale in Dixon this year.

The purpose of the poppy sale is two-fold. First, to honor the war dead by wearing the poppy which grows on the fields of France where they fell; and second, to aid the living victims of the war, the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead. Every penny of the money which the people of Dixon pay for their poppies will go to the relief of war sufferers.

Am. Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor A Poppy Sale May 22nd-23rd

The executive committee of the American Legion Auxiliary met Monday afternoon to formulate plans for their poppy sale, May 22 and 23. Mrs. Lila Wagner, as general chairman of the sale, with her very efficient will cover practically every city and town in the country. The poppy was worn in America in honor of the dead before the close of the war. In 1919 scattered poppy sales were held by the American Legion, and the following year the Legion adopted the poppy as its memorial flower. When the Auxiliary was organized in Kansas City in 1921, one of its first acts was the adoption of the poppy as the memorial flower. And the next veteran organization to adopt the poppy followed in 1922.

The American Legion Dixon Post No. 12 and its Auxiliary are expecting every citizen of Dixon to pay tribute to the World War dead and help the war's living victims back to health and happiness through buying a poppy.

Three Business Women Sit In Idaho Legislature

Boise—(AP)—Three successful business women sat in the house of representatives of the twenty-first Idaho legislature.

They are Mrs. Emma Yearlan of Selmon City, known as Idaho's sheep queen; Mrs. Emma Cloucheck, of Twin Falls, who has built up the women's department of her home county fair to a place of importance, and Mrs. Maude Largent, Cosho, manager of the Bristol hotel in Boise.

Capelets In Favor For Spring Wear

Paris (AP)—Fabric capelets are one of the smartest wraps for warm spring days.

The capes, which are only long enough to reach the shoulder blades, are often trimmed about the neckline with fur.

One cape may be worn with several frocks, a navy blue caplet being wearable with a dark blue, a blue and white polka dot and a blue and beige plaid frock.

TRY TO STEAL LIQUOR

Washington, May 13—(AP)—The Charge d' Affaires of the Salvadorian legation was attacked early today when he unsuspectingly walked in on thieves who were trying to steal some of the legation's liquor.

Senor Don Carlos Leiva returned to the legation after midnight. As he stepped through the front door several men grabbed him. He resisted and in the scuffle one of his attackers fired two shots, which struck the study door. The thieves then fled in three automobiles which had been parked in front of the building.

Police said they found ten cases of the legation's privileged, and best, liquor stacked up near the backyard fence. The wine cellar was very nearly a wreck, with empty sacks strewn about and the floor littered with straw.

The Charge d' Affaires was not seriously hurt.

HEAD OF ARMOUR CO. OPTIMISTIC IN RADIO SPEECH

Says Outlook Now Is Good
For Biggest Crop
Of The Nation

Chicago, May 14—An optimistic note was struck by T. G. Lee, President of Armour & Company, in commenting on the outlook for the nation's largest crop—livestock—in a talk here last night. He emphasized the importance of livestock in the economic picture, pointing out that it is important not alone because of its monetary value—over six billion dollars annually—but also because it provides the medium through which many farming operations are made profitable. The talk was broadcast on a nation-wide chain hook-up by Halsey, Stuart & Company.

Turning to the outlook, Mr. Lee said: "It may not be amiss to speak a word concerning the outlook for the industry. Last year meat consumption was slightly reduced as compared to 1929. Yet that does not mean that the public taste for meat is diminishing. It indicates only that the supplies of livestock last year were slightly under those of the previous year. All of the cattle, calves, pigs, lambs, and poultry must be sold by the farmer, as soon as ready for market, and the meat goes into consumption immediately. Consumption figures, therefore, are merely reflections of production, and consumer-demand can be determined only by considering both the volumes of meat consumed and the price at which it is moved."

Keep Stream Flowing
"Government reports indicate a probability that livestock supplies in 1931 will be slightly in excess of those of 1930. Market predictions indicate that the prices of meat will permit free movement. In some cases these levels are unprofitable to the farmer at present production costs but ultimate prosperity lies in the stability of prices rather than in the level of prices. Long experience shows that producers can adjust their costs to any reasonable level of prices provided the level is fairly well maintained. Wide fluctuations bring about competitive practices affecting labor, financing, feeds, and a host of other factors which often remove all opportunity for profit. Therefore, if we have steady markets with ready outlets the farmers can be depended on to produce livestock successfully."

"I have faith in the packers and retailers doing their respective parts in keeping the meat stream flowing, and if amongst all of us we can continue to move the nation's largest crop on a daily cash basis with a immediate outlet for all products and a ready supply for all demands we will be doing our full share in bringing this great country of ours back to a firm foundation of stability for investments and full employment for workers. We are told that our current business difficulties depend on world conditions, but we are a mighty factor in world conditions and it is my belief that we can, through successful marketing, control in a great degree our own prosperity."

Williamson Gets

Confidence Vote

Springfield, Ill., May 13—(UP)—A vote of confidence had been extended today to Hiram L. Williamson, Superintendent of the State Department of Printing, as a result of a hearing yesterday before the House Legislative Appropriations committee on a resolution demanding investigation of his department. The resolution was sponsored by Thomas J. O'Grady, Democrat, Chicago, who declared that he had received reports that payrolls in Williamson's department were padded. O'Grady presented witnesses who told of two instances of persons being on Williamson's payrolls but who had done no work for a time. The hearing developed into a series of testimonials for Williamson by members of the committee when he stated that people had been ill but had been kept on the pay list as a matter of charity, one of them being a girl employee, stricken with tuberculosis.

Only three Democratic members of the committee voted to recommend passage of the resolution, O'Grady admitting during the proceedings that for all he knew, his charges of payroll padding were only hearsay. Williamson in addition to holding the office of state printer is also Secretary of the Illinois Press Association.

PUT ONE OVER

Pekin, Ill., May 13—Pekin American Legion members discovered today that A. L. Mayers, Post Commander, never had been in the service. He disappeared a week ago. Legion men began to examine his records. Mayers was arrested upon his return. He admitted his real name was Clement Zinsheim, and that he had been rejected for service in the Marines in 1915.

NINE PLOTTERS ARRESTED

Mexico City, May 13—(UP)—Nine men were under arrest today on charges of complicity in an anti-government plot. The men were said to have confessed to participation in a rebellious scheme purported to have been sponsored by Luis Cabrera, former Secretary of the Treasury.
